We encourage you to discuss your housing options with your family and friends and to seek independent advice, support and representation as appropriate, in connection with a move to Audley Villages.

Audley has the right to re-enter the property and terminate the Lease without affecting any rights which have accrued to it under the Lease, should any of the rents reserved by the Lease remain unpaid for 21 days (whether formally demanded or not) or the Tenant fails to comply with any of the Tenants obligations in the Lease. In these cases, Audley will act reasonably before seeking a court order to terminate the Lease. Audley Court Ltd March 2024. Last updated May 2024.
